 - a. *Got a chance to go for a bit, joined a hiking group, build a shelter, it was fun to see the kids outside the classroom in the wilderness in. A different way outside of school, is validation we are doing the right things for these kids. Last week I hosted our first TK parent info session. First year doing universal TK, we learned a lot, in terms of how ready or not ready the kids and parents are for TK. How we can change it up for parents next year. Gave them summer homework. TK teachers have agreed to do a pre small group informal assessment. (ie how do these kids work together, can they separate from their parents. Etc.) It will be in the first week of August. They will be 40 minute sessions. Need to keep the parents occupied while the students are with the teachers. Has been in testing joy. 3-5 finished casp testing. District is collecting iReady data. School ends in 8 days.*
